TODAY'S REFLECTION : DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Today, the Second Sunday of Easter, is set aside to celebrate the Divine Mercy. This feast is relatively new. Of course the Divine Mercy has been observed for many years on the Sunday after Easter, but Pope John Paul the Great officially declared it a Universal Feast of the Church in April 2006.

The promise of Jesus to St. Faustina is that the flood-gate of God's mercy is opened on this Sunday. God's mercy will be poured on all who, in the state of Grace, receive communion between Good Friday and the Sunday after Easter. Since we are under lockdown this Year, we can fulfill these requirements Spiritually by making act of Perfect Contrition and Spiritual Reception of Holy Communion within the specified time. It is still a time of plenary indulgence - a time when we can receive full forgiveness of sin and all its consequences.

We all stand in need of God's Mercy and so must ask for it today. "Mercy" is giving to someone what he/she does not deserve. It is an unmerited favor or compassion. None of us would be saved except by the mercy of God.

Today God says to all of us: "I have forgiven you." As we receive His unconditional mercy, our Lord expects us to extend mercy to those around us. He tells us that the "merciful shall obtain mercy," (Mt 5:7). The corollary of this is that mercy will not be shown to those who do not offer mercy to others.

May the Lord continue to bestow on us Divine Mercy and heal our land of all traces of the corona virus. Amen!

Fr Eustace

YOUTH MINISTRY

If you are interested in our youth group please contact John Moncada: john.moncada54@gmail.com

YOUTH CORNER: On the Second Sunday of Easter, during the Jubilee Mercy, Pope Francis said in his homily that the Gospels are filled with God's mercy. He noted that "everything that Jesus said and did is an expression of the Father's mercy." He continued, "The Gospel of mercy remains an open book in which the sign of Christ's disciples—concrete acts of love and the best witness to mercy— continue to be written. We are all called to become living writers of the Gospel, heralds of the Good News to all men and women of today."

*Consider how you can be a living example of Divine Mercy.

*What characteristics define the first Christian Community?

April 19, 2020 -2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday
"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" (John 20:19)

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? Many of us can probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. A simple "hello" and a smile goes a long way.
