REFLECTION FOR THIS WEEK:

What do coins and the law of economics have to do with the kingdom of God? The Lord entrusts the subjects of his kingdom with gifts and graces and he gives his subjects the freedom to use them as they think best. With each gift and talent, God gives sufficient means (grace and wisdom) for using them in a fitting way. As the parable of the talents shows, God abhors indifference and an attitude that says it's not worth trying. God honors those who use their talents and gifts for doing good. Those who are faithful with even a little are entrusted with more! But those who neglect or squander what God has entrusted to them will lose what they have.

There is an important lesson here for us. No one can stand still for long in the Christian life. We either get more or we lose what we have. We either advance towards God or we slip back. Do you seek to serve God with the gifts, talents, and graces he has given to you?

Fr. Duberley Salazar

YOUTH MINISTRY

If you are interested in our youth group please contact John Moncada: john.moncada54@gmail.com

Today's readings challenge us to consider how we make use of the gifts that God has entrusted to us. Each of us is given the gift of time, as well as the particular strengths that we have and the skills that we have learned. As children of light, we do not hoard or hide away these gifts. Rather, we seek to practice good stewardship by utilizing these gifts in service to the Kingdom of God.

God has given each person a wide variety of gifts so that we might participate in building up God's Kingdom. Which gifts are you being called to cultivate, strengthen, and share more generously ?

"to be a Christian Steward: A summary of U.S. Bishops' pastoral Letter on Stewardship" states; " As Christian stewards , we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord." Reflect on that statement as you consider your stewardship

La mejor inversión jamás realizada en la tierra

Si tener un buen amigo es tener un tesoro, entonces la mejor inversión en la vida es hacer buenos amigos porque eres tan rico como la cantidad de buenos amigos que tienes. Si este principio nos parece sabio y verdadero, podría parafrasearlo asegurando que la mejor inversión en nuestra vida espiritual mientras estamos en la tierra es hacer un buen amigo en el cielo. Los santos son los amigos del Señor en el cielo, los que están cerca de él y, por tanto, pueden interceder por nosotros en todo momento ante Dios. De hecho, las almas en el purgatorio son santos en potencia, y si oramos, ayunamos y ofrecemos sacrificios por ellos, de esta manera, tendremos buenos amigos cuando suban al cielo ya que ellas son muy agradecidos y siempre estarán intercediendo desde el cielo por nosotros.

WELCOME

We welcome all visitors, friends, and families who are visiting our parish and worshipping with us this weekend. We are glad that you are here. If you are interested in becoming a member of our parish, please fill-out the registration form, go online or call the parish office.

Stewardship

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities."- MATTHEW 25:21

God calls us, through Stewardship, to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, use them wisely and be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The way to be great in the Kingdom of God is to be "the servant of all." A key point in which God and man differs is pride: in God there is no pride. Jesus calls us to be humble and to serve others with sacrificial love. Let us open our hearts to His call to be humble and share in His redemptive love.
