Reflection for Corpus Christi:

*"Take it; this is my body."
Mk 14:22*

At the Last Supper, Jesus instituted a new ritual that is celebrated throughout the generations as a perpetual institution. We call it Eucharist, the most holy body and blood of Christ, a memorial of his passion and death that will remain with us for all eternity, the summit of our faith, our road to eternal life. This is God's new covenant with us. We are his people, the flock he shepherds.

We must always remember that the Eucharist is the living bread that nourishes us to eternal life. We must always remember that ordinary bread, through the words of consecration, has become the body of Christ which must be treated with utmost respect and adoration. We must also remember that since God created us in his image and likeness, we must treat our body with utmost respect and act with utmost humility and love towards one another since Christ has commanded us to love one another as he has loved us.

As we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, we must always remember to respect and venerate the body of Christ as well as respect our own bodies and those of other people.

Viviendo Nuestra Fe

Recibir el don de la Eucaristía exige de nosotros una respuesta, que es a la vez personal y comunitaria. La respuesta no es para ganarnos la salvación, pues ya Cristo la consiguió; nuestra respuesta es una acción de gracias por haber sido salvados, y que manifestamos en la tolerancia y aceptación mutua para cultivar la comunión de la entera humanidad en el Cuerpo y la Sangre Cristo, pues "la Eucaristía se celebra, en cierto sentido, sobre el altar de mundo" (Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 8).

- ◆ ¿Dónde nota usted que la gratuidad se hace presente?
- ◆ ¿Qué impulsos a la unidad y a la comunión experimenta usted por recibir la Eucaristía?
- ◆ ¿Qué servicio de comunión y participación social brinda su parroquia o su grupo de fe?

REFLEXIONES

2 de junio de 2024 — Fiesta de Corpus Christi

"Y tomando una copa, después de dar gracias, se la dio a ellos, y todos bebieron de ella." - Marcos 14:23

Jesús, el perfecto administrador, dio gracias, justo antes de entregarse a Sí mismo por nosotros, por nuestra completa salvación. Él nos ofrece la misma oportunidad de beber de Su copa. En el pan y el vino, nos encontramos personalmente con Cristo. Si lo seguimos, tomar de Su copa significa que ofrecemos nuestro propio sacrificio, utilizando todos nuestros dones para beneficio de los demás y para hacer Sus obras en la tierra.

Por favor sea generoso durante la segunda colecta.
